

How is chocolate made?

Cocoa beans are contained in cocoa pods. pods are crushed and the beans are extracted and ferment naturally for about 6 days. beans are first graded, then roasted the nib is separated from the shell. the nibs, which are very high in fat or cocoa butter, are milled and cocoa liquor is produced. finally cocoa liquor is cooled and is known as cocoa has.