

Olympic gold medals

Did you know that Olympic gold medals are not really made of gold? The last gold medals actually made of solid gold were given out during the 1912 Olympic Games. Today, the gold medals are 93% silver, six percent copper and about one percent gold.