

COMPLETE

1. Where (you, to go) when I (to see) you last night? 2. (you, not to come back) after midnight: it's too dangerous! 3. What (you , to like) to drink? – I'll have a beer. 4. – (the teacher, to come back, yet)? – Yes, he (to arrive) ten minutes ago. 5. I (just, to prepare) the pizza; in a minute we (to have) dinner. 6. He (to be) born in Italy, but he (to live) in France for 10 years before the war. 7. Kennedy (to die) in 1963. 8. Where (you, to be) on Saturday? I (not to see) you. 9. I (to read) a book when she (to come in) last night. 10. When the war (to begin) we (to live) in England since 1938. 11. (you, to be ever) to London? – Yes, I (to go) there as a boy. 12. When we arrived, the lecture (already, to start). 13. What (you , to do) if he told you a lie? 14. –There's someone at the door. – I (to go). 15. (we, not to buy) anything without (to ask) the price! 16. I (to see) them (to play) in the garden when I (to leave). 17. The house (to build, still) when we (to buy)it before their wedding. 18. – (they, to be) at home when you (to arrive)? – Yes, they (to play cards). 19. Even if he (to live) in England for years, he (to speak) very little English when he (to come back)last summer. 20. She (to win) many tournaments in her life. She (start) playing with her father when she (to be) only eight. Next summer she (to hope) to win again. 21. (we, to stay) home tonight! It (to rain) and I (not to want) to go out. 22. As soon as he (to come back) I (to tell) him about you and he showed a great interest. 23. I wish I (to be) able to speak English last summer. 24. How long (he, to live) in LA before he (to move) to NY? 25. (he, to be) in? – Yes, he (to watch) TV in his room, but he (to leave) in a few minutes: he has to be at school by eleven. 26. He (not to play) well so far, but he hopes (to play) better next week. 27. How long (he, to be) in hospital? - Since he (to break) his legs. 28. I'm not in a hurry. I (to wait) for her until she (to finish). 29. If you (not to get drunk) you (to wake up) in time and we (not to miss) the train yesterday. 30. The painting (to restore, still) when we (to visit) the museum last summer, so we (can, not) see it. 31. It (rain) since this morning. 32. If you (to listen) to me and if you (to take) the car to the mechanic, it (not to break down) this morning. 33. We (to leave) tomorrow; we (to buy, already) the tickets. 34. I (to have) this type-writer for twenty years now, but it (to work, still) perfectly. 35. (you, not to forget) (to shut) all the windows before (to go out); we (to freeze) since yesterday! 36. She (to paint) for three hours now, but I (not to make out, yet) what she's trying to do. 37. How long (you, to wait) outside when (you, to attack) by the two men? 38. If you (to teach) him better, he (to pass) the exam last June. 39. After he (to post) the letter he (to realize) that he (not to put) the stamp on the envelope when he (to tell) to go to the PO. 40. It (to get) more and more difficult, so I (to decide) to stop (to go) to school before next term (begin). 41. The blackmailer (not to realize) that the police (to inform) and that his victim (to ask) to go on talking while the call was being traced. 42. You (not take) an umbrella, it isn't raining. 43. I (know) her since she was a little girl. 44. This picture (paint) by Picasso in 1915. 45. The fence (mend) last week if somebody (inform) me. 46. When he (ask) me I (to tell) him I (to be) not hungry because I (to have, already) a pizza. 47. I know I (to write) to you before , but I (to be) too busy; I (to phone) you but I (to forget) your number. 48. I (to walk, still) to work; my car (not to repair, yet). 49. I wish she (to stop) crying: how can I persuade her if she (not to listen)?. 50. (you, to be) sure there (to be) no one in the room next door? I think I heard someone (to talk) in there. 51. I (to have) no time to paint the gate, so I (to paint) it by my nephew who (just, to come back) from National Service the week before. 52. She (to work) with us for nine years now, but I (to be) afraid she (to make) up her mind to change. 53. It (to look) as if this light (to burn) all night. I must (to forget) (to switch) it off before (to go) to bed last night. 54. Hello! I (to try) to get you all week; where (you, to be)? 55. She (to write) another bestseller. –Yes, I (to read) it. – How (you, to like) it? - Well, I don't know if I (to be) depressed when I (to read) it, but I don't really think it's a masterpiece. 56. (you, cut off) while I (to talk) to you just a few minutes ago? 57. When you (to see) him again , you (to strike) by the way his health (to improve) since he (to go) to Switzerland. 58. The driver said he (not to understand) why the car (to break down) during the race. It (to undergo) thorough testing before (to enter) in the competition.